

Jay Bodzin, Attorney at Law

2075 SW First Avenue, Suite 2J, Portland, OR 97201

Telephone: 503-227-0965 • Facsimile: 503-345-0926

Email: jay@northwestlawoffice.com

Education:

Lewis & Clark Law School, Portland, OR

Juris Doctor, class of 2007

• Certificate in Criminal Law and Procedure. Qualifying paper: Prison Rape, Structural Reform Litigation, and the Problem of Legal Empathy (pp 56).

• Pro Bono Honors Awards, 2006 and 2007.

• Community Service Honors Award, 2007.

Reed College, Portland, OR

B.A., Political Science, class of 2002

• Senior thesis: Vouchers, School Choice, and Education Policy Reform (pp. 101); interviews with U.S. Congress members and staff made possible by Reed College Undergraduate Research Initiative Grant.

Legal Experience:

Northwest Law Office, Portland, OR

Attorney at Law, 2008-present. Practice specializes primarily in domestic relations law, and also includes personal bankruptcy and debt management, and small business representation and practice development for new lawyers. Organized and administrated law office start up. This office now includes eight independent solo practitioners who collaborate on practice management.

• Member of the Oregon State Bar and the Federal Bar for the District of Oregon.

• Chairman of the Oregon State Bar's Pro Bono Committee, 2011.

• Participant, Oregon State Bar Modest Means program.

Washington County Family Law Assistance Program, Hillsboro, OR

Deputy Family Law Facilitator, 2005-2008. Assisted pro se clients with preparation, review, and filing of legal documents (petitions for divorce, child custody, child support modifications, restraining orders, etc.). Coordinated client intake with district attorney's office and circuit court judges to ensure delivery of legal services to indigent and unrepresented court petitioners.

Lewis & Clark Legal Clinic, Portland, OR

Legal Intern, spring 2007. Handled pro bono civil cases under supervising attorneys. Practice areas included stalking orders, divorce, and landlord-tenant disputes.

Notary Public licensed in the State of Oregon.

///
///
///

Office/Technical Experience:

Delivered Dish, Portland, OR

Dispatcher, 2003-2008. Supervised and directed activities of a staff of 30 delivery drivers, using dedicated dispatching software and radio systems; handled daily payroll disbursement; developed radio protocols and wrote relevant section for employee handbook.

Reed Reactor Facility, Portland, OR

Nuclear Plant Senior Reactor Operator, 1999 - 2002. Conducted scientific experiments and nuclear equipment maintenance and repair; trained and counseled reactor operator license candidates; developed and administered emergency drills and procedures; oversaw compliance with applicable Federal regulations (primarily 10 CFR 20, 50, and 55).